In spite of all the Service Provider's carefulness a wrong price might be placed on the web shop's surface, in particular when the price is obviously false, that is, it is significantly different from the generally accepted or estimated price of the product, or when it is due to system issues and the price is 0 HUF or 1 HUF, the Service Provider is not obliged to deliver the product at a wrong price, but can offer the Customer the right price and in the knowledge of this the Customer may withdraw from his/her intention to purchase.

If the parties can not agree on the terms of the contract, i.e. there is no statement expressing the will of the parties in a mutually and unambiguous manner, we can not speak of a valid contract from which rights and obligations would arise. On this basis, the order acknowledged at the wrong/incorrect price will be considered to be null and void.

11.7. The conciliation board is responsible for the settlement of Customer disputes outside the court. The task of the Conciliation board is to attempt to establish a settlement between the parties in order to settle a Customer dispute, and in the event of its ineffectiveness, it will decide on the case in order to ensure the simple, fast, efficient and cost-effective enforcement of Customer rights. At the request of the Customer or the Service Provider, the Conciliation board shall advise on the Customer's rights and obligations.

11.8. In the case of a cross-border Customer dispute related to an online sale or online service contract, only a Conciliation board operating next to the Budapest Chamber of Commerce and Industry is competent.

11.9. In the case of a Customer complaint, you can use the EU online dispute resolution platform. The use of this platform requires a simple registration in the European Commission system by clicking here. After that, the Customer can make a complaint via the online website at <http://ec.europa.eu/odr>

11.10. The Service Provider is obliged to cooperate in the conciliatory body procedure. In this context, he must send his response to the Conciliation board and ensure the participation of the person authorized to conclude the hearing. Where the head office or the place of company is not registered in a county governed by the chamber operating the territorial jurisdiction of the Conciliation board, the company' obligation to cooperate shall be subject to the possibility of a written agreement in accordance with the Customer's request.

11.11. If the Customer does not turn to a Conciliation board or the procedure has not been successful, the Customer has the right to seek a court to settle the dispute. The lawsuit must be filed with a letter of formal notice containing the following information:

- the relevant court;
- the names of the parties and representatives of the parties, their place of residence and legal status;
- the right to be enforced, by presenting the underlying facts and their evidence;
- the data from which the relevance and jurisdiction of the court can be established;
- a definitive request for a court decision.

The application must be accompanied by a document or a copy of which is referred to as evidence.
